

The Adventures of Polly and Peter: Polly Gets Stuck

Polly Gets Stuck!

Inside the house of her friend called Fay,
Polly looked outside at the weather that day,

“Oh no! Oh dear!” she said,
“Let’s stay inside and NOT get out of bed!”

The trees were blowing left to right,
Leaves in the air, oh what a sight!
Just then, by the window, a bag flew past,
It was flying, fast so fast!

“Don’t worry.” said Fay.
“Let’s go outside, have fun and play.”

So Polly and Fay got ready and went Outside, to see the windy event.

Up above them the sky was dark,
Rain so heavy, it made the dogs bark.

Down below were puddles at their feet,
Splash, splash, splash all along the street!

Suddenly there came a great big

WHOOSH!

Poor Polly was blown over into a bush!

“Ah!” shouted Polly. “I’m stuck, stuck, stuck!
What a day! It’s just my luck!”

Aha! Fay found the branch of a tree.
“Hold on to this and I shall pull you free!”
Fay pulled and pulled, heave and ho.
Polly got out from the bush below.

“I have never felt wind like that before”
Said Polly back at home, all snuggled on the floor.
“Why is it so windy here? It’s Autumn!”
Fay replied, “Let’s go on a journey and learn about our planet.”
